Question: How long does this toothpaste take to work, do you brush with it or rub it onto the teeth that are sensitive.

Answer: Pretty quickly I found a difference straight after using. After a few days I hardly had any sensitivity. By "carol_anns" on 01 October 2019

★★★★☆ Buy elsewhere online, half the price!!

Reviewed in the United Kingdom on 9 August 2018

The toothpaste is great (I notice within days of stopping that my teeth hurt again!) but don't buy it from this seller. It's almost half the price everywhere else. I thought, for some reason, that I was getting two tubes for that price (£10.99). Must have muddled up the listings somewhere and only got one. Was shocked at that price. It costs £4 to send it back for a refund so pretty much not worth it. Lesson learnt.

★★★★★ Nothing short of a miracle!

Reviewed in the United Kingdom on 17 November 2017

Verified Purchase

If you have sensitive teeth you MUST buy this product. Having used several of the market leading brands of sensitive toothpaste with varying effect, my tooth sensitivity got so bad (using the most well known sensitive toothpaste) that hot, cold and any pressure at all on the tooth was excruciating. It was constantly throbbing. I have now been using BioMin F for about ten days and my tooth has got better every day to the point now where it is barely sensitive at all! I can chew peanuts, drink hot coffee or soup and hardly notice a thing, and this has been improving every day and after only ten days it is almost normal. Incredible. It's bit more expensive than other toothpastes but if you have sensitive teeth it is worth every penny, it is nothing short of a miracle!

★★★★★ Better than whiteners

I'm a convert. This toothpaste outperforms most whiteners I have tried and is a lot easier to use (as it essentially just a much better toothpaste that cleans and polishes).

Genuinely feel ones teeth healing up (over a period of a few days). Sensitivity decreases, and even the odd aches disappear. Remember to follow instructions, do not rinse, etc...

Tastes great but I can't say it's any better than sensodyne toothpaste just a lot more expensive.

Ich bin äusserst zufrieden mit dem schnell gelieferten Produkt. Geschmacklich sehr sehr frisch und hinterlässt einen Frischekick im Mund, was mich ebenfalls begeistert sind die natürliche Zutaten. KONSISTENZ der BioMin Zahncreme nicht zu grobkörnig angenehm beim Putzen der Zähne. Zusätzliches Fluorid in geringem Maße, das über viele Stunden an die Zähne abgegeben wird erhöht die Leistung der Bio Min F Zahnpaste. 4 Sterne deswegen weil sie sich im Hochpreissektor bewegt, aber qualitativ es wert ist.
